

Mexico Travel Advisory

Date: March 17, 2018

Location: Playa del Carmen

The U.S. Embassy in Mexico City has revised its travel restrictions as per the below:

Effective immediately, U.S. government personnel are permitted to travel to all parts of Playa del Carmen.

Effective immediately, U.S. government personnel are permitted to use ferry services between Playa del Carmen and Cozumel.

The country of Mexico as a whole remains at a Level 2 Advisory as of March 17, 2018, meaning travelers should exercise increased caution when traveling to Mexico. Some areas have increased risk. Please see the Mexico Travel Advisory for full details:

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/traveladvisories.html>